Reporte | Reid

Reconocimiento e Identificación de Escritua a Mano

La escritura original mostrada a continuación ha sido extraída de un documento titulado Test1_A_Original.pdf

According to the legend, Solomon had asked the Prince of the Demon, "Ashmodeus" to bring him the Shamir and Ashmodeus told him that the Shamir had not been placed under his charge, as there is no Shamir in Gehenna (Hell). In eagle brought the Shamir to Solomon from tolon the Paradix, the only place where the Shamir could be found.

La escritura bajo sospecha presentada a continuación ha sido extraída del documento titulado Test1_B_Original.pdf

The Talmud describes that the Shamir lives in a sanctuary, and only some rabe birds know the existence of it. These birds are, the Operabin and the Seraphim. We are also told that the Shamir is the stylus wed by Moses, and this stylus is described as a very precious diamond-stone and very adament

El documento de la escritura original junto con el de la escritura bajo sospecha ha sido sometido a un análisis por parte de la herramienta de reconocimiento e identificación de escritura Reid, resultando en un 81.60% de similitud entre ambos documentos.